SETTING A COURSE FOR ADVENTURE

Some boys avoid obstacles. Boy Scouts overcome them. They live to display their abilities while learning new skills.

Boy Scouting is a year-round program for boys in fifth grade through high school that provides fun, adventure, learning, challenge, and responsibility to help them become the best person they can be.

In Boy Scouting, young men go places, test themselves, and have one-of-a-kind adventures that can't be found anywhere else.

Boy Scouting is designed to be experienced outdoors. Hiking, camping, mountain biking, skateboarding, BMX, mountain climbing, kayaking, whitewater rafting—all of these and more are among those experiences.

There is something for everyone in Scouting!

ABOUT BOY SCOUTING

LIFETIME

ADVENTURE

Scouting is an introduction to the great outdoors for many boys and, most important, a lesson about their place in it.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

Scouting builds leaders. Former Scouts serve on the boards of global corporations, walk the halls of the White House, and have been known to occasionally go hiking on the moon. Life lessons learned in Scouting will help boys make good decisions throughout life.

SERVICE

The Scout slogan is Do a Good Turn Daily. That means doing something to help others each day without expecting anything in return. It means that Scouts do their part to care for the community and the environment.

PERSONAL GROWTH

As Boy Scouts plan activities and progress toward goals, they experience personal growth. Boys grow by participating in community service projects and by doing a Good Turn daily.

BENEFITS OF SCOUTING

14 MILLION
HOURS OF COMMUNITY
SERVICE

*Average number of hours performed by Scouts per year over last five years

SCOUT TROOPS

ARE BOY-LED AND BOY-RUN

Youth take responsibility for the activities of the troop. Adults train youth members to assume leadership roles, and boys are allowed to plan the program and carry it out. By planning and organizing activities, they develop teamwork and learn to lead as well as follow.

21 MILLION* MERIT BADGES

*Average number of merit badges earned by Boy Scouts per year over last five years

RANK ADVANCEMENT

Boy Scouting provides a series of surmountable obstacles and the steps to overcome them through the rank advancement method. Each Boy Scout plans his advancement and progresses at his own pace as he meets each challenge. Rank advancement is one method used by Scout leaders to help boys fulfill the aims of Scouting: character development, citizenship training, and mental and physical fitness.

MERIT BADGES

Earning merit badges gives Scouts the opportunity to learn important life skills and to gain real-world knowledge in more than 130 different areas — from American Business to Woodwork. The merit badge program plays a major role in Scouting advancement.
